Please sign the "Combined Declaration and power of Attorney".

Please sign and notarize the "Assignment".

I have enclosed check #57076 in the amount of $75 to cover any expenses relating to the notary and mailing.

I will need this documentation back no later than November 5th, 2001.

Thank you for your time.

Jon,

Give the papers to Matt to give to me. It's doubtful I will sign anything.

I should make my feelings clear to you. I think you put the screws to me at the end of my working at Merge Left and sold out our friendship for $100,000. You made enough veiled threats to show that I couldn't count on you to honor our deal. I'm not open to arguing this point or resolving anything with you. I don't consider us friends.

Also, please don't contact my parents. It would sicken me to think they had to talk to you.

I have some documents that need signing for the yologo patent. Unfortunately, they require a notary as last time. This should be it for signatures as this is the final patent application.

Please let me know where I should send the documents. I will also send a check for the notary and a phone number for the traveling notary so you can do it from you home. Should all be fairly painless.

Thanks,

Jon

Re: U. S. Patent Application for METHOD AND APPARATUS FOR ESTABLISHING A CUSTOMIZED ELECTRONIC SITE
Filing Date: June 26, 2001
Serial No: 09/892,205
Our File: 2437/103

Dear Jon:

We have received our return postcard from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) relating to the above-referenced patent application. Enclosed is a copy of our return postcard for your records.

The USPTO date stamp shows that the application was received on June 26, 2001, and was tentatively assigned serial number 09/892,205.

In order to obtain the earliest possible filing date, the application was submitted without an executed Declaration. Therefore, we must now fulfill the filing requirements of the USPTO. Accordingly, we request signatures on various documents. Please have the enclosed documents executed as follows:

1. Combined Declaration and Power of Attorney. Please have each inventor sign and date this document where indicated.

2. Assignment. This document conveys the rights of the above invention from the inventors to yoLogo, Inc. Each inventor should sign and date this document. Please note that each signature must be notarized.

3. Small Entity Statement. Please read the enclosed "Important Note Concerning Small Entities" to determine if yoLogo, Inc. qualifies as a small entity. If yoLogo, Inc. qualifies as a small business concern, please sign the enclosed small entity statement. If you have any questions regarding whether yoLogo, Inc. qualifies as a small entity as described in the enclosed note, please call me to discuss further.

I would appreciate receiving the Declaration and Power of Attorney, Assignment, and Small Entity Statement before so that we may complete the filing requirements of the USPTO without an additional expense for an extension of time. Additional delay would also result in foreshortening any extension of the patent term to which you would otherwise become entitled if the USPTO were to delay patent prosecution beyond certain statutorily defined milestones. Please see the enclosure entitled "Patent Term Guarantee" for a more detailed discussion of patent term adjustments.] Once we have received the signed documents from you, we will file them with the USPTO, and assuming that no problems are encountered, we can expect to receive a formal filing receipt in due course.

August 10, 2001

We remind you at this time that an applicant is under a strict duty of candor and good faith. As part of this duty, an applicant is obliged to disclose to the USPTO any and all information of which the applicant is aware that is material to the examination of the application. Such information is considered material where "there is a substantial likelihood that a reasonable examiner would consider it important in deciding whether to allow the application to issue as a patent." 37 C.F.R. §1.56(a).

One means for complying with this duty of disclosure is the so called "Information Disclosure Statement." An information disclosure statement is a listing of patents, publications, or other information, together with an explanation of the relevance of each listed item, together with copies and translations of listed items, as appropriate. Ideally, an information disclosure statement should be filed with the application. However, an information disclosure statement can also be filed within the later of three months after the filing date of the application or before the first office action is issued. Of course, if the applicant becomes aware of any relevant art at any point during the prosecution, it is appropriate to file an information disclosure statement at that time as well.

Therefore, if you are aware of any relevant art, including relevant articles, patents, or other publications (or events such as offering for sale or public use of a product embodying the invention more than one year before the effective filing date of the application), please send us copies of these documents (or information concerning these events) at your earliest convenience so that we may comply with the duty of disclosure. For example, you may have uncovered such documents while researching the subject matter to be patented, or conducting novelty or clearance searches. Also, such documents often turn up during the course of prosecution of a related case in a foreign jurisdiction. If there is any question as to whether or not a particular document or event is relevant, it is advisable to disclose that document or event to the USPTO in order to avoid any possible allegation of fraudulent or inequitable conduct, and to strengthen any patent ultimately issuing on the application.

In accordance with your instructions as understood, we have not filed a request for non-publication of this application. Consequently, the application will be published approximately 18 months from the priority date of June 26, 2000.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions or comments.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth P. Morano

Patent Term Guarantee

Under U.S. patent law, the term of a U.S. patent is eligible for day-by-day extensions when the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("PTO") fails to perform certain acts within specified time frames. For example, the term of a U.S. patent is eligible for day-by-day extensions if the PTO fails to:

1. initially act on the patent application not later than 14 months after the filing date of the patent application;
2. respond to a complete reply filed by an applicant not later than 4 months after the filing date of the reply; or
3. issue a patent not later than 4 months after the filing date of the issue fee providing all outstanding requirements for issuance are satisfied.

However, the period of adjustment of the patent term is subject to reduction when a patent applicant fails to engage in reasonable efforts to conclude processing a patent application or examining a patent application. In general, the PTO has defined failure to engage in reasonable efforts as failure to respond within 3 months to most PTO notices or actions on the patent application. Thus, for example, failure to file an inventor's oath/declaration within 3 months of receipt of a Notice to File Missing Parts, or failure to file a response to a first Office Action within 3 months of receipt of the Action, or failure to pay the issue fee within 3 months of receipt of the Notice of Allowance will reduce on a day-by-day basis any period of patent term adjustment.

Accordingly, whenever possible, we will endeavor to respond to pertinent PTO notices or actions within 3 months of receipt of the notices or actions. In some circumstances, however, our response is dependent upon your providing us with information or documents. In these circumstances, we ask you to provide us with the information or documents as soon as possible in order to ensure we have the time needed to prepare the response within the 3-month time frame.

For more detailed information on the patent term guarantee provisions of the U.S. patent law, please feel free to call us at (617) 443-9292.
